DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 1-11 are objected to because of the following informalities: the letter "t" has been left out of each of the independent claims. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ando et al (4,918,350) in view of Applicant's admission.

With respect to claims 1-6, Ando et al disclose a piezoelectric element comprising a plurality of layers and three vibration electrodes 3, 5, and 7 defining an energy-confining region in fig. 1.

The reference does not disclose the same material or the dimensions. The court has found that the selection of a known material based on its suitability for its intended use is obvious. In re Leshin, 227 F.2d 197, 125 USPQ 416 (CCPA 1960). Sinclair & Carroll Co. v. Interchemical Corp., 325 U.S. 327, 65 USPQ 297 (1945). The Examiner takes Official Notice that the materials  $\text{SrBi}_4\text{Ti}_4\text{O}_{15}$ ,  $\text{CaBi}_4\text{Ti}_4\text{O}_{15}$ , and  $\text{SrBi}_2\text{Nb}_2\text{O}_9$  are art recognized equivalents for the piezoelectric material PZT found in Hall. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to select one these materials for the purpose of utilizing their known properties, such as their electrical response or thermal characteristics. The court has stated that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, it is not inventive to discover the optimum or workable ranges by routine experimentation. In re Aller, 220 F.2d 454, 456, 105 USPQ 233, 235 (CCPA 1955). Applicant has admitted that it was well known in the art that the ratio of  $nL/t$  was a result effective variable. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art through routine experimentation to find the optimum range for the purpose of finding the most efficient device.

With respect to claims 7-11, the reference shows in fig. 1 the top most and bottom most electrodes 3 and 7 are formed on the outer surfaces.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 4 March 2002 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The reference used in the 103 rejection above in paragraph #1 was 4,918,350.

With respect to the taking of Official Notice, Applicant is pointed to the Hirose et al, Nagasawa et al, and both the Yokoyama et al references which disclose the use of bismuth-based ceramics, and especially to the Yokoyama et al references which disclose using bismuth-based ceramics as a piezoelectric material. The Applicant has admitted in the first full paragraph of page 2 that  $nL/t$  is a result effective variable. Further, the relationship is notoriously known in the energy stored in a parallel plate capacitor  $U = \frac{1}{2} (\kappa \epsilon_0 A d) E^2$  where  $U$  is the energy,  $\kappa$  the dielectric constant,  $\epsilon_0$  permittivity of free space,  $A$  the area of the electrode, and  $d$  the distance between the electrodes.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
